Focus on hazards to birds

Focus on picking up bird-specific harzardous items such as fishing line, plastic bottle rings, and plastic bags. Birds can mistake these items for food and ingest them or get them wrapped around their beaks or necks, causing them to starve.

When you concentrate on removing these specific hazards, it takes the pressure off having to pick up every bit of trash you see. Your targeted PLIRDING efforts will also have the most beneficial impact on birds.