Go on a trash treasure hunt

Trash is rarely considered treasure, but you might find it more enjoyable to PLIRD if you treat it like a treasure hunt. Aside from the seemingly ubiquitous plastic bottles and aluminum cans, you might discover unexpected items that you'll feel especially good about taking to the garbage can. If you love listing, you could even keep a list of the weird trash you find and compare lists during your next birding group meetup!